Hunting Dragons

Tip: During the event, dragons will be killed very quickly. If you're having trouble reaching them on time, pick a spot and hang out waiting for the next dragon to show up.

Dragon Symbols on the Map:

Dragon present, has not been engaged

Crossed swords: Dragon has been engaged, health is still above 50%

Cracks: Dragon's health is below 50% - it will probably die before you get there

Event Tickets: How to Use Them

There is an annual cycle of new items released. This year it's a pet called the Passion Dancer Blossom. You'll need to buy 3 fragments from the Impresario and morph them into the pet.

3 Fragments:

Chartreuse Lily Petals
Enchanted Silver Flute
Mystical Sheet Music

MORPH

In future:

Passion Muse
Personality Fragments

- Bottle of Silver Mist

Passion
Muse
Personality

IMPRESARIO (The Event Ticket Merchant)

Later this year, you'll be able to morph the pet into other collectibles. The next one will be the Passion Muse Personality. This will require you to buy more fragments with event tickets. Only one of those fragments will be available during this event (Bottle of Silver Mist).

Event Tickets: How to Use Them - Another Option

INDRIK VENDOR

Another place to spend event tickets is on indrik mounts and pets. The indrik vendor is:

- ❖ Always in Craglorn during any in-game event
- ❖ Located west of the Belkarth wayshrine
- ❖ Indrik mounts are morphed from fragments
- ❖ Buy 4 fragments to create a Nascent Indrik
- ❖ Then buy 4 berries to morph the Nascent into the Indrik of your choice

In-Game Event Preparation (Inventory Management 101!)

If you want to spend as much event time as possible farming reward boxes, take some time before the event begins to clear your inventory of:

- ❖ Treasure maps
- ❖ Resource surveys
- ❖ Furnishings
- ❖ Gear you don't need
- ❖ Museum pieces

Sort through your storage coffers, your alt characters, and your leads to make space and time for focusing on the event and its rewards!
